ABOUT THE COLLECTION

This rare photograph collection of North Korea was made available by Mrs. Young Kahang, who donated 153 oversized print photographs in memory of her late husband Mr. Won-jin Kahang in August 2002. The collection itself originates from the late Mr. Kahang who had accumulated extensive materials relating to Kim Il-sŏng, Kim Chŏng-il and North Korea in general.

CONTENTS

The collection consists of both colour and black and white photographs, ranging in size from 9¼" (23.5 cm) to 19½" (49.5 cm) in width and 7" (17.8 cm) to 19½" (49.5 cm) in height. There are no negatives for the photographs. Each of the eight sets is accompanied by caption sheets indicating the title of each photograph and floor plans for displaying the images. The large size and the accompanying material of the collection suggest that it was part of some exhibition in the past.

HOW TO ACCESS THE COLLECTION

The title and call number of each photograph is listed in the 'Online Finding Aid' available at: http://link.library.utoronto.ca/eal/flash/NorthKoreanPhotographCollection_FindingAid_2010.pdf. Detailed bibliographic information for each image can be viewed through the University of Toronto Libraries catalogue search (search by title or call number).

Each photograph can be viewed via:

- 1) Physical retrieval at the Cheng Yu Tung East Asian Library. The collection can be viewed only within the designated restricted area of the library. Please request for assistance from the library staff.
- 2) FADIS (Fine Art Digital Imaging System), an online searchable image database, available at <http://fadis.library.utoronto.ca>. For instructions on FADIS usage, please refer to the left column. Access to FADIS is restricted to current students and faculty members of the University of Toronto.
